

South Carolina Police Chiefs Association

2018 APPLICATION FOR SUSTAINING MEMBERSHIP

What is The SC Police Chiefs Association?

It is a non-profit organization consisting of police chiefs and command staff throughout the state, who recognize the importance of having effective leaders in law enforcement today. The Association, through training and meetings, continually works toward enhancing the knowledge and skills of the police executive, which strengthens his/her ability to meet the demands of providing the best possible law enforcement. In addition, the Association monitors legislative matters affecting the safety of all citizens and businesses, ad as a unified body, adopts resolutions to be forwarded to our state lawmakers.

Who Can Become A Sustaining Member of The SCPCA?

Any person or business who wishes to support the SCPCA may join the Association as a Sustaining Member.
